

DMI COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Palanchur, Chennai.

நாளைய இலக்கு (The Goal of Tomorrow)

DMI College of Engineering is glad to present the special event Naalaya Ilakku (The Goal of Tomorrow) for students to gain insight and guidance on pursuing higher education after completing secondary education on January 28, 2023 (Saturday) at 9.30 A.M which is a Zee Tamil News initiative powered by Deepsphere.AI and co-powered by AMET University. Thousand Hundred and Forty-six (1146) students from various school participated enthusiastically in the event.

The programme started with the procession in which the dignitaries were marshaled with the accompaniment of the college band to the Immanuel Auditorium. The dignitaries adorned the dais with their presence. The event commenced with the customary invocation by lighting the lamp. Rev.Sr.G.Gnanaselvam, Managing Trustee of DMI College of Engineering welcomed the gathering and explained in detail about the achievement of excellence and vision related to Engineering and Management. The chief guest and all the special speakers were honoured with Shawl and memento Mr. Anbil Mahesh Poyyamozhi, Minister of School Education, Tamil Nadu inaugurated the event and addressed the students about the importance of setting clear and achievable goals for their future and choosing career that aligns with their interest and passion. In his address he quoted a German Philosopher Quote “Nothing great in the world was accomplished without passion”. Mr. Aravinthan, IPS, Zonal director, Narcotics control, expressed his best wishes to the student and also directed them to face the examination without fear.

Dr. Santhosh Jacob, Health Expert and motivational speaker motivated the student with his life experience and also guided the students about how to handle success and failure. Mr. C. Sudhakaran, IRPS, Mission Director of Naan Mudhalvan directed the student how to cope up with competitive exam. Mr.Simon Anandharaj, Career Counsellor guided the students what to study next and insisted the students to keep themselves updated.Mrs. Nithya. K, UPSC Educator motivated the students by telling real time motivational stories and how to overcome obstacles to succeed in life.

Dr.N.Azhagesan, Principal, DMI College of Engineering rendered his sincere thanks to everyone and he explained in detail about the scope of Engineering and about the various departments offered by the college he motivated the students through his powerful words. Mr.Jothi Periyasamy (USA), Board member, University of California interacted with the students through virtual mode. He explained in Detail about the Artificial Intelligence. Capt.K.Karthik, Principal, AMET College of Engineering explained in detail about the necessary qualification required to join in Navy and the scope for the same. Mr. Santhosh Kumar, Assistant Professor, Remo International College discussed in detail about the distinctiveness of Aviation and about the various programme offered, Finally Mr.L.K.Charles Vetrivendhan, Advocate Madras High court addressed the students and guided them about the importance of planning their future and making informed decision about their education. Thus, the speakers from various fields discussed with the students how to choose their next level higher education in the cutting-edge fields. It was a wonderful opportunity to gain insight and guidance on pursuing advanced education to students. The event concluded successfully with National Anthem.

